CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

Model syllabus designed by the Department of Higher Education is introduced for the students with minor changes by the Board of Studies and approved by the Academic Council. The board of studies and academic councils are associated with curriculum development. The members of the board of studies followed by those of the academic council meet once a year, separately on different dates, at the beginning of the academic session for curriculum development. Keeping in view the needs of the students the college had earlier added different value added courses like Communicative English, Reasoning and Quantitative Aptitude, Tally, Web Design, Banking and Insurance. The institution aims at providing employability to the students by introducing such courses. But there was no syllabus revision in 2022-23. The institution imparts teaching in different subjects which are relevant to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, and Human Values into the curriculum

This institution believes in moral values, professional ethics, gender equality and sustainable development. Students belonging to humanities are taught in these lines and students belonging to other science, commerce, and self financing courses are taught value based education in smart class rooms. PPTs and other forms of ICT methods are followed to impart such education. Lessons on human values, gender equality, environment issues, sustainable development, and prohibition remain the core theme of such learning process. Different video lessons are also played from the web (Link given by the government of Odisha) to bring awareness among the students. Ethics and Values as compulsory subjects is being taught across disciplines. The book highlights gender equality, human values and professional ethics for overall development of students. Similarly Environmental Studies has been taught across disciplines. It lays emphasis on the protection of environment for the future generations. The course aims at sensitizing students about sustainable development.

6.1.2 - Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The institution encourages decentralization and participative management in various spheres of administration. The Executive Committee is the apex body that takes important and crucial decisions concerning the overall development of the college. The Executive Council, otherwise known as the Governing Body, consists of members who have great contributions to academics, industry and social service. The Principal is the ex-officio secretary and two senior most faculties are the members of the Executive Council.

So, decentralization starts at the apex and goes down gradually to the grassroots.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the various institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from the policies, administrative set-up, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The N.C. (Auto) college, Jajpur has an Executive Committee appointed by the Govt of Odisha. Currently Dr. Sushant Kumar Das acts as the Chairman of the Executive Committee. Principal of the college always acts as the secretary-cum- convenor of the said committee.

The meetings of the committee sit twice in a year at least. The Executive Committee takes all pivotal decisions relating to the development of the college. It is also empowered to recommend some important policy prescriptions to government for executive approval. Besides there are various bodies which actually function with the direction of Principal and coordinative attitude of the subordinate staff. To name a few, the important bodies of this college include - College Union, Library Committee, Finance Committee, Academic Council, Examinations Committee and others. In all such bodies principal normally nominates some staffs to handle the works and challenges.

The service rules of the employees are prepared and implemented by the government itself. The rules undergo minor / major changes all the time depending on the necessity or requirement of the time. Similarly, recruitment to all posts (teaching & non- teaching) is carried out by government from time to time. But in recent years, the government has given the principals the authority to recruit certain categories of employees on outsourcing basis. Promotion to next higher post or cadre is a matter of concern of the government in the department of Higher Education.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching-learning process, structures and methodologies of operation and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through its IQAC as per norms

The periodic interval reviews of teaching-learning process, structure and methodology of operations and learning outcomes are done by the IQAC. It holds meetings and interactive sessions with teaching staff from time to time and also discusses different academic issues with an open mind.

The IQAC always focuses on holding unit test for ascertaining the academic performance of students. On the basis of academic performance of students they are divided into two groups - fast learners and slow learners. Students with slow learning capacities are taken care of and special classes are arranged for them to clear their doubts relating to authority/concepts.

Besides the IQAC always puts emphasis on completion of course in time. Teachers and para-teachers are motivated towards this for the benefit of the students. The competitive base of students is also strengthened by imparting them with pattern of examination and level of competition in each category of entrance tests. The IQAC also encourages students of different curricula to go for some jobs oriented course under IGNOU and OSOU. Both of them have had (got) their study centres in N.C (Auto) college premises. Above all the IQAC coordinator always highlights the norms and guidelines prescribed by the NAAC for bringing an improvement in quality of higher education in the college.

In this institution, there is a proper system of waste management. There is a degradable pit where degradable wastes are deposited and treated to create vermin compost. The compost is used for gardening purpose. About the non-degradable waste like plastic and glass, we have a special dumping place. The Municipality of the town collects it from the college and treats it causing no environmental hazards to the student and staff. Furthermore, we have NSS Wing which clean the college from time to time and also makes other students and staff aware about waste management. In our institution for liquid waste like storage and impure water we have proper drainage system so that there will be no growth of insects like mosquitoes and flies and other insects. Regular spray of disinfectant and other chemicals is done to check the growth of bacteria and virus inside the campus regularly.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e. tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic and other diversities (within a maximum of 200 words).

Jajpur is a multicultural, multi religious and multi lingual district where people of different religion and community cohabit. As such, in this college student from different cultural, linguistic and religious communities study together in an environment of harmony and cordiality. Till its inception there is no evidence of any religious or cultural disorder among the staff of students. Tolerance has been the core value of this educational institution where every religious denomination is allowed to practice his or her fundamental religious and cultural rights as enshrined in the constitution. In our hostels students from various cultural group live together without any ill feeling. The principal and the staff member take special care of the minority students. Here Urdu is taught as a language which is rare in the state of Odisha.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens:

Every citizen of the nation should be aware of his/her rights and duties which have been enshrined in the constitution of India. As all the students of this institution are citizens of the nation, the institution initiates special measures to make the students aware of values like democracy, liberty, rights primarily fundamental rights and also their duties towards the nation and community. Different departments of the college from time to time have been taking special initiative to make the girl students aware of their special rights. They are taught and sensitized about the domestic violence, dowry, property rights and right to participate in the electoral practices and how to secure and hold public office. At the time of elections out volunteers take special initiative to make the people aware of their voting rights. This institution being one of the oldest in the state always cherish the values of toleration. Here students belonging to all religion cohabit in harsh less environment and study. The staff members have faith on democratic value. Yuva sanskar classes are regularly organized to infuse and sensitize the students about different values like respecting the teachers, respecting their fellow beings and to remain far away from vices like drug abuse, abusing girl child etc.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Highlight the performance of the institution in an area distinct to its priority and thrust (within a maximum of 200 words)

N.C. College, Jajpur is a rural based college. It is situated in the Bichitrapur Grampanchayat and also surrounded by many Grampanchayats. As it is a rural based college the first priority or the most important thrust area of the institution is to look after girls' education, as this area lacks in girl education. Therefore, this college takes special measure to sensitize the students about the relevance of modern education for girls. As it is a rural based college, we are fighting against untouchability, prejudices, orthodoxy and conservatism. The students are made aware about child marriage, patriarchy, and dowry and prudha system. Due to the special initiative of the institution, the number of girl students is increasing in comparison to the boy students. Today, our girl students are taking admission in different universities of the state by qualifying in the common entrance test organized by the state of Odisha. They are also employed in different organization. We have proper hostel facilities for girl students. We have 600 seats for girl students where as for boys it is only 150.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

Model syllabus designed by the Department of Higher Education is introduced for the students with minor changes by the Board of Studies and approved by the Academic Council. The board of studies and academic councils are associated with curriculum development. The members of the board of studies followed by those of the academic council meet once a year, separately on different dates, at the beginning of the academic session for curriculum development. Keeping in view the needs of the students the college had earlier added different value added courses like Communicative English, Reasoning and Quantitative Aptitude, Tally, Web Design, Banking and Insurance. The institution aims at providing employability to the students by introducing such courses. But there was no syllabus revision in 2022-23. The institution imparts teaching in different subjects which are relevant to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, and Human Values into the curriculum

This institution believes in moral values, professional ethics, gender equality and sustainable development. Students belonging to humanities are taught in these lines and students belonging to other science, commerce, and self financing courses are taught value based education in smart class rooms. PPTs and other forms of ICT methods are followed to impart such education. Lessons on human values, gender equality, environment issues, sustainable development, and prohibition remain the core theme of such learning process. Different video lessons are also played from the web (Link given by the government of Odisha) to bring awareness among the students. Ethics and Values as compulsory subjects is being taught across disciplines. The book highlights gender equality, human values and professional ethics for overall development of students. Similarly Environmental Studies has been taught across disciplines. It lays emphasis on the protection of environment for the future generations. The course aims at sensitizing students about sustainable development.

6.1.2 - Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The institution encourages decentralization and participative management in various spheres of administration. The Executive Committee is the apex body that takes important and crucial decisions concerning the overall development of the college. The Executive Council, otherwise known as the Governing Body, consists of members who have great contributions to academics, industry and social service. The Principal is the ex-officio secretary and two senior most faculties are the members of the Executive Council.

So, decentralization starts at the apex and goes down gradually to the grassroots.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the various institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from the policies, administrative set-up, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The N.C. (Auto) college, Jajpur has an Executive Committee appointed by the Govt of Odisha. Currently Dr. Sushant Kumar Das acts as the Chairman of the Executive Committee. Principal of the college always acts as the secretary-cum-convenor of the said committee.

The meetings of the committee sit twice in a year at least. The Executive Committee takes all pivotal decisions relating to the development of the college. It is also empowered to recommend some important policy prescriptions to government for executive approval. Besides there are various bodies which actually function with the direction of Principal and coordinative attitude of the subordinate staff. To name a few, the important bodies of this college include - College Union, Library Committee, Finance Committee, Academic Council, Examinations Committee and others. In all such bodies principal normally nominates some staffs to handle the works and challenges.

The service rules of the employees are prepared and implemented by the government itself. The rules undergo minor / major changes all the time depending on the necessity or requirement of the time. Similarly, recruitment to all posts (teaching & non-teaching) is carried out by government from time to time. But in recent years, the government has given the principals the authority to recruit certain categories of employees on outsourcing basis. Promotion to next higher post or cadre is a matter of concern of the government in the department of Higher Education.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching-learning process, structures and methodologies of operation and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through its IQAC as per norms

The periodic interval reviews of teaching-learning process, structure and methodology of operations and learning outcomes are done by the IQAC. It holds meetings and interactive sessions with teaching staff from time to time and also discusses different academic issues with an open mind.

The IQAC always focuses on holding unit test for ascertaining the academic performance of students. On the basis of academic performance of students they are divided into two groups - fast learners and slow learners. Students with slow learning capacities are taken care of and special classes are arranged for them to clear their doubts relating to authority/concepts.

Besides the IQAC always puts emphasis on completion of course in time. Teachers and para-teachers are motivated towards this for the benefit of the students. The competitive base of students is also strengthened by imparting them with pattern of examination and level of competition in each category of entrance tests. The IQAC also encourages students of different curricula to go for some jobs oriented course under IGNOU and OSOU. Both of them have had (got) their study centres in N.C (Auto) college premises. Above all the IQAC coordinator always highlights the norms and guidelines prescribed by the NAAC for bringing an improvement in quality of higher education in the college.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within a maximum of 200 words)

In this institution, there is a proper system of waste management. There is a degradable pit where degradable wastes are deposited and treated to create vermin compost. The compost is used for gardening purpose. About the non-degradable waste like plastic and glass, we have a special dumping place. The Municipality of the town collects it from the college and treats it causing no environmental hazards to the student and staff. Furthermore, we have NSS Wing which clean the college from time to time and also makes other students and staff aware about waste management. In our institution for liquid waste like storage and impure water we have proper drainage system so that there will be no growth of insects like mosquitoes and flies and other insects. Regular spray of disinfectant and other chemicals is done to check the growth of bacteria and virus inside the campus regularly.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e. tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic and other diversities (within a maximum of 200 words).

Jajpur is a multicultural, multi religious and multi lingual district where people of different religion and community cohabit. As such, in this college student from different cultural, linguistic and religious communities study together in an environment of harmony and cordiality. Till its inception there is no evidence of any religious or cultural disorder among the staff of students. Tolerance has been the core value of this educational institution where every religious denomination is allowed to practice his or her fundamental religious and cultural rights as enshrined in the constitution. In our hostels students from various cultural group live together without any ill feeling. The principal and the staff member take special care of the minority students. Here Urdu is taught as a language which is rare in the state of Odisha.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens:

Every citizen of the nation should be aware of his/her rights and duties which have been enshrined in the constitution of India. As all the students of this institution are citizens of the nation, the institution initiates special measures to make the students aware of values like democracy, liberty, rights primarily fundamental rights and also their duties towards the nation and community. Different departments of the college from time to time have been taking special initiative to make the girl students aware of their special rights. They are taught and sensitized about the domestic violence, dowry, property rights and right to participate in the electoral practices and how to secure and hold public office. At the time of elections out volunteers take special initiative to make the people aware of their voting rights. This institution being one of the oldest in the state always cherish the values of toleration. Here students belonging to all religion cohabit in harsh less environment and study. The staff members have faith on democratic value. Yuva sanskar classes are regularly organized to infuse and sensitize the students about different values like respecting the teachers, respecting their fellow beings and to remain far away from vices like drug abuse, abusing girl child etc.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Highlight the performance of the institution in an area distinct to its priority and thrust (within a maximum of 200 words)

N.C. College, Jajpur is a rural based college. It is situated in the Bichitrapur Grampanchayat and also surrounded by many Grampanchayats. As it is a rural based college the first priority or the most important thrust area of the institution is to look after girls' education, as this area lacks in girl education. Therefore, this college takes special measure to sensitize the students about the relevance of modern education for girls. As it is a rural based college, we are fighting against untouchability, prejudices, orthodoxy and conservatism. The students are made aware about child marriage, patriarchy, and dowry and prudha system. Due to the special initiative of the institution, the number of girl students is increasing in comparison to the boy students. Today, our girl students are taking admission in different universities of the state by qualifying in the common entrance test organized by the state of Odisha. They are also employed in different organization. We have proper hostel facilities for girl students. We have 600 seats for girl students where as for boys it is only 150.
